

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens by addressing the needs of industry in Missouri; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Jus Bleezy, who is largely responsible for the 2008 St. Louis J.D. Technology Retreat and Convention, to be held between February 26 and February 28 of this year; and

Whereas, in this new age of music and technology, new and special issues face existing and emerging industries in this state; and

Whereas, as technology advances, all is new, from cell phones and ipods to ring tones and computers and laptops, all affecting radio and television; and

Whereas, the goal of the 2008 St. Louis J.D. Technology Retreat and Convention is to help the affected industries recognize the influence that those who have a direct effect and regulate what we see and hear with an awareness of what's new, cutting-edge, and innovating in the ever-changing world of music and technology; and

Whereas, those attending will gain insight as to how to use technology to help them attain their desired results in their respective fields; discuss solutions and strategies with colleagues facing similar issues through seminars, networking, receptions and additional activities; experience hands-on demonstrations from companies that produced and manufacture D.J. equipment, turntables, D.J. packages, and mixers; and

Whereas, participants to the 2008 St. Louis J.D. Technology Retreat and Convention are expected from across the country and around the globe:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to applaud the efforts of Jus Bleezy by bringing the 2008 St. Louis D.J. Technology Retreat and Convention to our state; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Jus Bleezy.
